SEVEN COLLEGE LUNCHEON

Be sure to send in your reservation for the Seven College Alumnae Clubs of Western New York luncheon to be held Saturday, April 9. This year’s topic is Real Estate Cycles and Regional Economies. The featured speaker is Professor Karl (Chip) Case, who is the Katharine Coman and A. Barton Hepburn Professor of Economics at Wellesley College.

The event will be held at the Transit Valley Country Club in Amherst and will begin at 10:30 a.m. The cost per person is $18.00. RSVP to Lisa Wallin-Cleveland at DMCLEW1@aol.com or 433-5469. We hope to have a large turn-out from the Wellesley Club for Professor Case, so we will also ask the College to send email invitations to the Rochester and Toronto Wellesley Clubs. Please feel free to bring guests.

Many thanks to Lisa Cleveland for all she has done to make this annual event what will certainly be an enlightening and entertaining affair. Lisa did most of the work traditionally done by the Seven College Committee to organize and plan this event, and it truly would not have happened without her efforts.

ANNUAL MEETING IS APRIL 30

Plan to attend the annual meeting of the Buffalo Wellesley Club on Saturday, April 30. It will begin at 11:00 a.m. and will be followed by a buffet lunch at the home of Joan Gruen at 34 Middlesex Road in Buffalo. RSVP to Joan Gruen by Thursday, April 28 at gruens@att.net or 873-4550.

ADMISSIONS

Seven young women from Western New York (six as regular decision candidates and one as a transfer student applicant) have applied to Wellesley College for the upcoming year. The applicants attend the following schools:

- City Honors School
- Falconer Central High School
- Jamestown High School
Acceptances will be mailed in April, and we will let you know the results at the annual meeting. The College received over 4,400 applications for admissions this year; the applicant pool for last year was 4,095.

On January 8, 2005, the Buffalo Wellesley Club hosted an informational admissions reception for prospective students at the home of Christine Bonaguide. Only two high school seniors attended the event, but the turn-out was enhanced by about 10 Club members and an additional three young alumnae who are new to Western New York and not yet Club members.

BOOK AWARDS

The Buffalo Wellesley Club will be presenting book awards to 19 high school juniors this year. Anne Taylor and Ann Barry have been hard at work coordinating this for the Club and are looking for help distributing books to the schools and, in some cases, presenting the awards. If you can help, please contact Anne or Ann or look for them at the annual meeting. The schools are listed below:

- Amherst Central High School
- Bennett High School
- Buffalo Academy of Science & Math
- The Buffalo Seminary
- City Honors School
- Clarence High School
- East Aurora High School
- Hamburg High School

- Lewiston-Porter High School
- Nardin Academy
- Orchard Park High School
- The Park School of Buffalo
- Williamsville East High School
